Lucius Annaeus Seneca

100 lampi di genio che hanno cambiato il mondo Luca Novelli, 2015-04-15 Non c'è nulla di più prezioso di una buona idea al momento giusto: un lampo di genio appunto. Ecco dunque un libro che raccoglie cento lampi di genio che hanno cambiato la storia della nostra specie: alcuni sono nati da grandi scienziati, come Galileo, Leonardo, Benjamin Franklin e Marie Curie, altri non sono attribuibili invece a qualcuno in particolare e sono frutto del caso o della necessità, altri ancora sono illuminazioni sopraggiunte dopo anni di studio e di ricerca o sono scaturiti cercando qualcos'altro. Da tutti abbiamo qualcosa da imparare: le buone idee sono nell'aria, ma bisogna essere preparati per coglierle al volo. Dai lampi classici, come quello che fece esclamare Eureka ad Archimede, ai lampi che si perdono nella notte dei tempi, tra cui la nascita della scrittura e la scoperta dei metalli; dai lampi elettrici, quali la pila di Volta e la lampadina di Edison, a quelli elettronici, con il World Wide Web e le intuizioni di Steve Jobs: sono 100 le idee folgoranti che leggerai in questo libro, suddivise in maniera ragionata e corredate dal dizionarietto illustrato, che chiarisce i termini più complessi.

Con altre parole Lucia Rodler, 2023-02-24T00:00:00+01:00 Vale la pena raccontare gli scrittori del passato e le loro opere? L'autrice si interroga sui modi in cui, dal XVIII secolo, la cultura è stata divulgata, disseminata, comunicata ai non addetti ai lavori: donne, bambini, lettori che conoscono alcune cose ma non altre. Già da tempo le scienze e la storia hanno saputo diventare "pubbliche", si sono cioè impegnate per condividere le conoscenze e le competenze fuori dal mondo accademico. Anche la cultura umanistica si sta muovendo in tal senso: sugli scaffali delle librerie sono esposti testi enciclopedici che raccontano opere letterarie in pillole e biografie che narrano a un pubblico di tutte le età la vita di donne e uomini memorabili. E tutto ciò con un linguaggio chiaro, semplice, efficace. Così si afferma un nuovo modo di pensare il rapporto tra narrazione e pubblico, con possibilità e limiti indagati in questo volume.

Einstein and the Time Machine Luca Novelli, 2017 Albert Einstein wasn't afraid to think for himself. Working as a clerk in the patent office in Bern, Switzerland, he wrote papers with fantastical theories--that light is both a wave and a particle; that matter can become energy, and energy can become matter; that space can bend, and time is relative. His revolutionary theories turned the world of physics upside down, and earned him a Nobel Prize. Einstein and the Time Machine tells the story of one of the greatest thinkers of the 20th century, as well as the basics of his Theory of Relativity.

Darwin and the True Story of the Dinosaurs Luca Novelli, 2017 When Charles Darwin published The Origin of Species in 1859, he shocked the world. In it he claimed that humans were just another animal species that had evolved from more primitive life forms. Years earlier, Darwin had collected thousands of animal specimens during a five-year voyage around the world, specimens that he used to make his case for biologic evolution through natural selection. Darwin and the True Story of the Dinosaurs tells the story of the brilliant naturalist who changed humankind's understanding of its origins.

Trust Domenico Starnone, 2021-11-09 A MOST ANTICIPATED BOOK OF FALL 2021 Following the international success of Ties and the National Book Award-shortlisted Trick, Domenico Starnone gives readers another searing portrait of human relationships and human folly. Pietro and Teresa's love affair is tempestuous and passionate. After yet another terrible argument, she gets an idea: they should tell each other something they've never told another person, something they're too ashamed to tell anyone. They will hear the other's confessions without judgment and with love in their hearts. In this way, Teresa thinks, they will remain united forever, more intimately connected than ever. A few days after sharing their shameful secrets, they break up. Not long after, Pietro meets Nadia, falls in love, and proposes. But the shadow of the secret he confessed to Teresa haunts him, and Teresa herself periodically reappears, standing at the crossroads, it seems, of every major moment in his life. Or is it he who seeks her out? Starnone is a master storyteller and a novelist of the highest order. His gaze is trained unwaveringly on the fault lines in our public personas and the complexities of our private selves. Trust asks how much we are willing to bend to show the world our best side, knowing full well that when we are at our most vulnerable we are also at our most dangerous.

La Grande Italia Emilio Gentile,2009 La Grande Italia traces the history of the myth of the nation in Italy along the curve of its rise and fall throughout the twentieth century. Starting with the festivities for the fiftieth anniversary of the unification of Italy in 1911 and ending with the centennial celebrations of 1961, Emilio Gentile describes a dense sequence of events: from victorious Italian participation in World War I through the rise and triumph of Fascism to Italy's transition to a republic. Gentile's definition of Italians encompasses the whole range of political, cultural, and social actors: Liberals and Catholics, Monarchists and Republicans, Fascists and Socialists. La Grande Italia presents a sweeping study of the development of Italian national identity in all its incarnations throughout the twentieth century. This important contribution to the study of modern Italian nationalism and the ambition to achieve a great Italy between the unification of Italy and the advent of the Italian Republic will appeal to anyone interested in modern European history, Fascism, and nationalism. The Wall of the Earth Giorgio Caproni,1992 The work of Giorgio Caproni has been translated into French, German, and Chinese, among others, but this collection is his first book-length English publication. His works are finely tuned to modern man's preoccupations with existence in a world deprived of certainties (for example, the existence or inexistence of God). Most are touched by experiences such as the Second World War and its atrocities, the Resistance Movement, or the death of loved ones, events that represent the conviction of a subject that will do its best to survive all adversity, uncompromised -- from the Introduction by Pasquale Verdicchio
